

CITY OF PORT ORANGE

WHEREAS, On September 17, 1787, all twelve state delegations to the Constitutional Convention approved the document that granted our liberties and established our current system of government. This document was crafted by a committee of five men, yet it has served as the blueprint for democracy around the globe; and

WHEREAS, The United States Constitution survives and flourishes largely because of its superlative system of fairness and flexibility. Our founders created a balance of responsibilities among the Federal and State Governments and our citizens. The Constitution creates a balance of powers among the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of government and includes built-in provisions for a means of amendment that evolves with our advancing democracy; and

WHEREAS, As we commemorate this anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, we celebrate the dedication and foresight of our founders.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Allen Green, Mayor of the City of Port Orange, Florida, do hereby proclaim the week of September 17, 2010, to September 23, 2010, as

CONSTITUTION WEEK

Allen Green, Mayor
September 7, 2010